24th February 2021

Dear Parents/Guardians,

We will be celebrating World Book Day as a school community on Thursday 4th March.

On that day, we would like all the children to make a 'Cloak of Clues' for their favourite book and wear it for their home learning that day. The cloak can be made from anything you like - an old sheet, a curtain, a black bin liner! The clues that are attached to the cloak can be as simple or as elaborate as you wish. It would be great if you could send a photograph of your child in their cloak to their class teacher as we'd like to share these in class on the first day back in school the following week! Those children attending school that day can wear their cloaks to school.

Example of clues for a cloak based on 'The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe':

- A picture of a wardrobe
- A lion soft toy
- A Turkish Delight box
- A thermometer picture showing a negative number
- Cotton wool snowballs
- A picture of a lamppost

Please speak to your child's teacher or myself if you have any questions regarding the cloaks.

Inspired by the recent Saturday night show: 'The Masked Singer', teachers here at St Michael's are busily preparing a 'Masked Reader' video for you and your children to watch that day! Will you be able to work out which teacher lurks behind the mask and will you recognise which book the extract that they are reading comes from? Further details of this will follow on the day!

Thank you in advance for your continued support.
